Day by day

Day 1 · Haridwar to Badrinath (about 320 km, 11 to 12 hours

The group meets at Haridwar early in the morning at the pickup point shown with your departure, and starts the long drive towards Badrinath. The road goes through Rishikesh and along the Ganga to Devprayag, where the Bhagirathi and Alaknanda meet to form the Ganga. From there it follows the Alaknanda through Srinagar, Rudraprayag, Karnaprayag, Nandaprayag, Chamoli and Pipalkoti, passing the river confluences known as the Panch Prayag, which our Panch Prayag route guide describes in detail. The group stops for tea and lunch on the way (lunch at your own cost).Beyond Pipalkoti the road climbs through Joshimath, Vishnuprayag, Govindghat and Pandukeshwar. The Joshimath to Badrinath stretch is…

Day 2 · Badrinath sightseeing to Pipalkoti (about 85 km, 3 to 4 hours)

Start early, since the darshan queue grows through the morning. Take a dip at Tapt Kund and join the queue for darshan of Lord Badri Vishal. Waiting time depends on the season and the day, and the tour manager guides the group through the process. After darshan there is time for Brahma Kapal, the ghat on the Alaknanda where families offer pind daan, if you wish, and for the shops around the temple. If you want to arrange a puja, read our guide on Badrinath puja booking and fees beforehand.After breakfast the group drives the short distance to Mana village, about 3 km beyond Badrinath, to see Vyas Gufa, Ganesh Gufa and Bhim Pul, and to walk around the village, which marks the end of the road…

Day 3 · Pipalkoti to Haridwar (about 240 km, 8 to 9 hours)

After breakfast the group leaves Pipalkoti and drives back down the Alaknanda valley, with stops at Rudraprayag and Devprayag. You reach Haridwar in the evening, and the tour ends with the drop-off there. If time allows, Har Ki Pauri and the Ganga Aarti in Haridwar make a peaceful ending to the yatra, though this depends on road conditions on the day. Please book any onward train or bus for late night or the next morning, since landslides, traffic or weather can delay the return on mountain roads. If you need a cab from the station, see our Haridwar railway station taxi service.

Booking and cancellation

Advance and balance. Pay an advance of 25% of the total to confirm your seats, or pay the full amount at booking. The balance is due 7 days before departure. Your booking shows the exact date and amount. Each online payment (advance, full amount or balance) has a payment processing charge of 2% of that payment, shown as its own line before you pay.
If you cancel. 30 or more days before departure: we keep ₹2,000 per person and refund the rest of what you paid. 7 to 29 days before departure: we keep the advance (25% of the total) and refund anything you paid above it. Less than 7 days before departure, or if you do not show up: no refund.
Minimum group size. Each departure runs with a minimum number of travellers. We confirm every date by its decision date. If a date does not reach the minimum, Gokeys cancels it and you choose: a 100% refund within 7 working days, a move to another departure of any group tour at no fee (any fare difference is paid or refunded), or running it as a private trip by paying the difference.
